

Knowledge transfer at the 2018 International Spinach Conference (VG17004)

Are you an Australian Spinach producer wanting to further your knowledge of global spinach production, spinach varieties, production challenges and management techniques?

In 2018, Andrew Bulmer and Stuart Grigg of EGVID Pty Ltd with support from Horticulture Innovation Australia, are conducting a tour to Murcia, Spain.

As part of the 'Knowledge transfer at the 2018 International Spinach Conference' tour we will visit leading European producers, global breeders - who are planning and planting trials specifically for our contingent, culminating in the attendance of the International Spinach conference.

Growers will be required to make a $1,800 contribution toward the cost of the tour. This tour is only open to Australian producers.

All air and land travel, single room accommodation, travel insurance, conference registration and most meals are included. Personal expenses are not covered.

Departing the evening of 9 February 2018 and returning 18 February 2018.

For further details and/or to register your expression of interest, contact Stuart Grigg – 0400 860 763 or stuart@sqaghortconsulting.com.au

This project has been funded by Hort Innovation using the vegetable research and development levy and funds from the Australian Government.
