ACE OHLSSON

Zucchini Variety Trials and Precision Ag Field Day

When: Friday, 6 December 2019
12pm for lunch

Where: Greater Sydney Local Land Services Demonstration Farm,
40 Edwards Rd, Richmond Lowlands

You will hear about:

- Ace Ohlsson's current zucchini variety trial and the importance of pollination. See more than 20 varieties from seven seed companies in one location. Come and judge for yourself!
- Adoption of precision systems technologies in vegetable production by DAF QLD, covering crop sensing imagery, yield and soil monitoring to name a few.
- Innovations such as the Agerris' digital farmhand robot, XAG's drones, Croplands 'Weed it', agnov8's irrigation technology and more.

RSVP by: Monday, 2 December for catering purposes
