

AuSPICA Potato Industry Conference

Come along and join us at the 2022 Potato Industry Conference at The Mercure Hotel in Ballarat, on 6th October

This year's conference theme is "Let's Get Together". The conference organisers have assembled a range of excellent presentations that will provide you with world leading information to assist in building better businesses in the Australian potato industry.

For more information call AuSPICA on 03 5962 0000 or email conference@auspica.org.au

The 2022 Potato Industry conference features a full day conference at the Mercure Hotel Ballarat commencing at 10 am at a cost of $110 per delegate.

The program will include:

- Potato Link – Research and Development update from Horticulture Innovation Australia funded research projects
- Expert presentations on a range of topics
- The Launch of Potatoes Australia Ltd and the AuSPICA Annual General Meeting

The Gala Dinner and My Room Children's Cancer Charity fundraiser to follow will be held in the Eureka Ballroom at the Mercure at a cost of $110 per delegate.

If you would like accommodation at the Mercure, please mention the AuSPICA Conference when booking.

The Conference is a fantastic opportunity for networking, catching up with clients, old friends and new, so "Let's Get Together" and register your interest for this exciting industry event.

Register your interest today!

<https://www.ausepica.org.au/conference>

For more information email conference@ausepica.org.au or contact the AuSPICA Office on 03 5962 0000

